

Kar/bruserarmatur

A detailed view of a chrome-plated bathtub faucet. The faucet features a central spout and two side handles with cross-shaped knobs. A handheld showerhead is attached to the top of the faucet via a flexible, braided metal hose. The showerhead has a white, ergonomic handle and a chrome face with multiple spray nozzles. The entire fixture is made of polished chrome, reflecting light.

Mere information på damixa.dk

